

MELTING POT FOOD TOURS

Melting Pot Food Tours promises an authentic and unforgettable experience that will leave you feeling exhilarated and happy. Their tours are designed to entertain and educate locals and visitors alike and they strive to ignite in their participants a passion for and appreciation of Southern California as a world-class culinary destination. Tours and events include historical and cultural storytelling, tastings or a meal, and approximately 7,000+ walking steps with lots of fresh air. Melting Pot Food Tours is truly passionate about providing unique culinary and historic experiences throughout the Southern California region. They are all about immersing guests into Los Angeles' many diverse cities and neighborhoods—showcasing family-owned restaurants and the history of their timeless recipes and colorful stories that make them so unique. Melting Pot Food Tours takes a lot of pride in highlighting the small, hidden pockets of the area and they can't wait to share with you all of their in-the-know secrets.
